STAN'S SPOTLIGHT

Hi, Heroes.

You're in luck! I decided to spare you the agony of reading another of my never-to-be-forgotten (and unlikely-to-be-remembered) New Year's poems!

But you don't get off scot-free! In place of the usual valiant bit of versifying, I thought I'd let you in on some of the nifty New Year's resolutions I've made for 1994, in which I resolutely resolve:

- 1 To give Jim Cameron some tips on how to direct action movies!
- 2 To let Arnold Schwarzenegger borrow my personal edition of "Secrets of Body Building"
- 3 Not to leave Sharon Stone on "hold" anymore when she phones
- 4 To unstintingly offer my financial advice to Ron Perelman.
- 5 To try to talk Tom DeFalco into growing a beard
- 6 To use my influence to have less car chases in BARBIE FASHION
- 7 To force Terry Stewart to wear a Marvel T-shirt.
- 8 To attempt to use alliteration when I write stuff
- 9 To convince Marvel to try putting holograms on some covers
- 10 To get Avi Arad interested in toys (Sorry, guys — an inside joke)
- 11 To forego my natural reluctance and occasionally put my name in our comicbooks
- 12 To finally allow Spidey to guest star in other Marvel mags.
- 13 To trick Fabian Nicieza into writing more than one comicbook title a month
- 14 To continue taking public speaking lessons from BEAVIS AND BUTTHEAD
- 15 And, of course, never to rest until finally learn what "Excelsior" means!

There you have it, True Believers! They're brain dead, I know, but hey, they could have been worse — I could'a put 'em in verse!

Excelsior!

Stan Lee
